

Many Lands

Many Tales

15th Annual Multilingual Book Fair & Workshops

FRIDAY OCTOBER 23, 2009

ENCINITAS BRANCH LIBRARY

540 Cornish Drive • Encinitas, CA 92024 • 760-753-7376

Librarians • Teachers • Book Lovers

Come browse a vast selection of current and quality materials from the many National, Multilingual Booksellers. Displays include Fiction and Non-Fiction, Adult and Children's materials in various formats and languages. Arabic, Farsi, Tagalog, Chinese, French, Spanish, and many more!

SPONSORED BY

SERRA MULTILINGUAL BOOK FAIR COMMITTEE

www.serralib.org

* FREE WORKSHOPS *

8:30-9:30AM LIBROS WORKSHOP Reaching Out and Building

Explore the changing demographics of San Diego and the role libraries play in representing the cultures served. The second half of this workshop will focus on Spanish language collections and offer an orientation to selecting materials found at the book fair.

SPEAKERS: Jacqueline Ayala is the co-author of Serving Latino Communities: A How-To-Do-It Manual for Librarians, 2d ed. (2007: Neal-Schuman Publishers, Inc.) and Monica Chapa Domercq is the Collection Development Coordinator for the Oceanside Public Library's World Languages Collection.

10:00AM - 4:00PM BOOK FAIR OPEN HOUSE

12:00NOON - 1:00PM - LIBROS WORKSHOP Libraries and New Immigrants: Reaching Out to Middle Eastern Communities

Learn how increases in the number of immigrants to San Diego from the Middle East are being addressed through actively visible programming and increased partnerships.

SPEAKERS: Farrah Mazhari, Librarian, San Diego County, El Cajon Branch
Safa Arabo, Assistant Manager, San Diego County, La Mesa Branch

4:00PM BOOK FAIR CLOSES